jesus as god stands as one of the significant exegetical theological contributions of the century with linguistic and exegetical skill befitting his ranking as a leading international scholar murray j harris discusses the new testament us of the greek term theos god as a christological title

how do the gospel and epistles of john depict the death of jesus and why do they do so in the way that they do the argument of this study is that there is a diversity of theological perspectives on jesus death in the johannine corpus and that at least some of that diversity can be elucidated with reference to the changing sitze im leben of the johannine community this book thus attempts to correlate johannine theology with johannine history building on the earlier labors of raymond e brown and j louis martyn in particular part one assesses recent trends in johannine scholarship and gives a fresh account of the history of johannine christianity and of its literary legacy part two then investigates jesus death in the gospel and epistles of john attempting to understand and to explain the diversity of johannine theological perspectives with reference to historical developments and sociological realities focal point of discussion and analysis are johannine passages which relate jesus death to the fulfillment of scripture e g john 12 37 39 19 24 36 37 to his departure or going away e g 14 2 3 to his exaltation and glorification e g 3 14 8 28 12 32 34 13 31 and to the language of flesh blood and water john 6 51 56 13 1 20 19 34 i john i 7 4 2 5 6 8 2 john 7 in view of the vagueness effectiveness and vulnerability of the evangelical accounts of jesus as far as his historical reality is concerned the witnesses in non christian literature have always occupied a prominent place in the question of his historicity as early as the first few centuries of the present era pious christians searched the jewish and pagan writers for references to jesus convinced that such references ought to be found in them they regarded with great concern the undeniable defects of tradition and in the interest of their faith endeavoured to supply the want by more or less astute pious frauds such as the acts of pilate the letter of jesus to king abgar ukkama of edessa the letter of pilate to tiberius and similar forgeries greater still was the reliance on the few passages in profane literature which seemed to afford some confirmation of the historical truth of the things described in the gospels as these so called non christian witnesses are again brought forward to rebut the denial of the historicity of jesus in the

jesus said to the religious leaders of his time you search the scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life it is these that testify about me and you are unwilling to come to me so that you may have life john 5 39 40 in these verses jesus spoke a profound truth that has not been completely understood he said that the religious leaders of his time were searching the scriptures for some mystical formula that would give them life when they should have realized that the answer they were seeking was christ himself who was standing before them he said in effect you will not receive me you persist in looking for magic formulas when your salvation is here in me as your lord when scripture is read it should be with the intent of finding that revelation of christ christ is the entire word of god so the word nor any part of it cannot be divorced from him john said in the beginning was the word and the word was with god and the word was god he jesus christ was in the beginning with god all things came into being through him and apart from him nothing came into being that has come into being john 1 1 3 when the scriptures in genesis chapter 1 say let it be or god said it was jesus christ who was speaking he was speaking the words of the father as john said all of creation came into existence through him the word and apart from him the word nothing came into being the word is eternal as it christ has existed with the father from the beginning both the old and new testaments are filled with references to christ which we will examine in some detail here for instance concerning prophecies of the coming of christ there are 1 845 references to it in the old testament and a total of seventeen old testament books give it prominence this of course pertains to the first coming of the 260 chapters in the entire new testament there are 318 references to the second coming or one out of 30 verses twenty three of the 27 new testament books refer to this great event for every prophecy on the first coming of christ there are 8 on christ s second coming technically the entire bible is a revelation of christ to the true believer there is no dispute over who may have written the words although the majority of theological thought is that the books were written by the authors to whom they are attributed the words of scripture are not mere words to the believer but are as jesus said it is the spirit who gives life the flesh profits nothing the words that i have spoken to you are spirit and are life john 6 63 books written by man convey ideas inspiration pleasure and information god is a spirit john 4 24 and therefore his words contain spirit and spiritual life however there are specific spiritual references that point to christ of which all should be aware that is not to say you cannot take any verse of scripture and receive revelation of christ from it the entire book speaks of him as he said to the pharisees above but there are references that stand out as confirmation of his great ministry nevertheless the old testament and later the new testament are the foundations for our faith upon which we stand we can receive revelation from christ from the scriptures without even understanding the verse because the words bypass our mind and feed our spirits without intellectual understanding but when christ quickens understanding to our mind it is even better because then we have the mind of christ and are able to comprehend what he is saying and his plan from beginning to end is revealed in the scriptures this book will search out some of these references in order that you may gain an understanding of them and thus increase your knowledge of the trinity of god and his purposes in the earth for all mankind the secret astrology of the bible by michael ledo is a landmark book that will change the way the scholarly community and the general public views the bible history and myth epic in scope this provocative book explores the connections between religious belief and cosmic theory even as it attempts to explain contradictions and irregularities in the text the bible states ledo was constructed as a living document with much of its text expanded as time went on if readers stripped away this added material they could actually be left with an early bronze age text over a thousand years older than what is currently accepted by scholars this text suggests ledo would be a veritable cosmic myth which follows the constellations with stories in a contiguous fashion that combine both history and myth originally sold as on earth as it is in heaven the cosmic roots of the bible discover afresh the good news of the gospel the long awaited messiah had finally arrived only to be betrayed and sentenced to death why would jesus who knew beforehand all that would happen and who held the power of heaven at his command submit to being humiliated tortured and ultimately killed in this powerful study centered on the final chapters of the gospel of mark you'll consider for yourself all that jesus endured to bring forgiveness to sinners and hope to the hopeless and you'll understand as never before why it's so essential to share with others the good news of his death and resurrection the son of man sayings are some of the most contested sayings in the gospels they preserve a phrase employed by jesus to refer to himself yet the meaning of the saying in its various contexts has been hotly debated for centuries some identify allusions to other literature in the bible including the book of daniel others see it as simply being a strange rendering in greek of an aramaic phrase that was relatively commonplace the history of research on these sayings is here presented by benjamin e reynolds in a volume of critical readings which provides access to over 50 years of scholarly research these essays and articles include the most often cited articles that address the various aspects of the son of man debate in addition to these most well known pieces reynolds includes carefully selected additional essays that allow readers to trace different developments in the debate and to provide an entry into the waters of the son of man problem and the numerous solutions that have been offered each section features an introduction and a section of annotated further readings jerry d breen argues that reading matthew and all the gospels as ancient biography is the necessary next step for gospel studies in particular breen contends that more specific comparisons should be made between the gospels and ancient literature breen stresses that this reading invites narrative critics to place more emphasis on examining the use of sources and the importance of intertextual and historical information that the author introduces to the text breen places emphasis on the relationship between jews and non jews in ancient galilee and palestine and challenges the long supported theory that jesus did not minister to non jews beyond two or three exceptions demonstrating that jesus is inclusive of everyone who comes to him even though he was sent primarily to the jews breen argues that the portrait which matthew creates is one of a jewish messiah who is on a mission to restore israel so that the restored people of god can bless the nations concluding that rather than two conflicting missions the audience of the gospel is encouraged to view the healing of non jews during jesus s ministry as further proof that the jewish messiah is bringing restoration to israel
